Second Level

CDETB has a long and proud tradition in second level education. We have an excellent team of highly qualified and experienced teachers who are committed to success, raising expectations, providing opportunities and striving to meet the needs of all our students in caring and supportive settings. Besides providing a strong academic and creative environment each of our schools offers dynamic extra-curricular activity in sports and cultural activities.

Second level education consists of a three-year Junior Cycle, followed by a two or three year Senior Cycle depending on whether the optional Transition Year (TY) is taken.

Students usually begin the Junior Cycle at age 12. The Junior Certificate examination is taken after three years. The Senior Cycle caters for students in the 15 to 18 year age group. It includes an optional Transition year, which follows immediately after the Junior Cycle. TY provides an opportunity for students to experience a wide range of educational inputs, including work experience, over the course of a year that is free from formal examinations.

Junior Cycle:

The Junior Cycle builds on the foundations of Primary Education. It allows the student to achieve a level of competence in a wide range of subjects that will enable him/her to proceed to Senior Cycle. A number of our schools also offer the Junior Certificate School Programme (JCSP) which provides a curricular framework that helps to make the Junior Cycle more accessible to young people who may leave school early.

Transition Year:

Before students progress to a two year Leaving Certificate course they normally choose to engage in a Transition Year programme which gives them the opportunity to encounter a wide range of educational experiences, including work experience. Students engage in a holistic education tailored to their needs without an excessive focus on examinations. Afterwards students can choose one of three programmes at Leaving Certificate level.

Leaving Certificate:

Students normally study seven examinable subjects but must take at least five subjects, including Irish (unless you are exempted from the study of Irish by the Department of Education) however most students take 7 subjects. Students intending to go on to University normally take the Leaving Certificate examination at the end of Senior Cycle. There is a strong academic focus and students are encouraged to perform to the best of their ability.

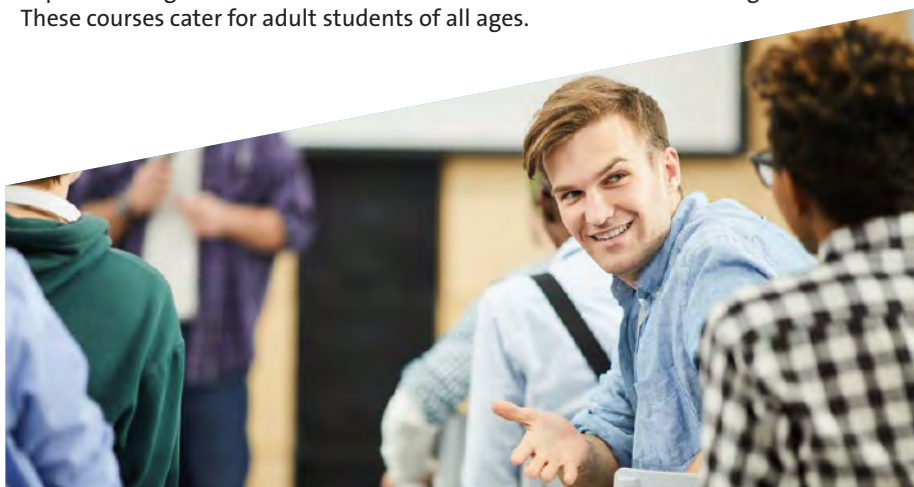

Leaving Certificate Applied (LCA):

This two-year person-centred programme aims at preparing students for adult and working life. The programme is geared around practical tasks and projects. It is intended to meet the needs of students who are not adequately catered for by other Leaving Certificate Programmes. The Leaving Certificate Applied (LCA) Programme is made up of a number of modules grouped under three headings: General Education, Vocational Education and Vocational Preparation. Successful LCA candidates frequently progress to Further Education, an apprenticeship or employment.

Leaving Certificate Vocational Programme (LCVP):

This programme has a strong vocational element that concentrates on technological subjects. It gives students the opportunity to realise their potential for self-directed learning, innovation and enterprise. As part of this Programme students engage in work experience, sampling an area of employment that they have an interest in. Students take five subjects (including two vocational subjects), a Modern European Language and link modules on Enterprise Education, Preparation for Work and Work Experience.

Repeat Leaving Certificate courses are offered in a number of our Colleges. These courses cater for adult students of all ages.

Our aim is to prepare you well for your future whether you want to go directly into employment or to go further and access Higher Education. Our staff are highly experienced, talented and committed and all of our colleges and centres have excellent long-term relationships with employers. The pages that follow list the courses on offer alphabetically. You will see at a glance which college or centre offers the course, how long it will take (usually one or two years) and the award on offer (i.e. QQI level 5 or 6).

If you visit the college or centre website you will find much more detail about the course you are interested in including the modules on offer on each course. If you are not sure of the title of the course you are interested in you can also search by visiting www.cdetb.ie – go to ‘find a course’ and enter a keyword.

Some of the courses are open to students who may qualify for the Vocational Training Opportunities Scheme (VTOS), or the Back to Education Allowance (BTEA).

Most Further Education and Training courses interview for places. At interview you are given the chance to talk about yourself and why the course interests you. Enthusiasm and commitment are often as important as examination results.

If you have any questions please ring any of our colleges or centres directly, they will be delighted to help you to find the right course for you.

Candidates should contact Colleges/Centres directly to enquire about their desired course.

Curriculum Development Unit (CDU)

CDET Curriculum Development Unit (CDU), established in 1972 by CDVEC, Trinity College Dublin, and the Department of Education provides support to educators in curriculum development and research.

CDU in partnership with educators, schools, centres and colleges supports a variety of initiatives aimed at enhancing further education and training (NFQ levels 1-6) and second level education (junior and senior cycle).

At all times there are three core strands at the heart of the work of the CDU: the professional development of educators to meet the needs of learners and the provision of quality educational opportunities, the development of the curriculum in partnership with other stakeholders and the promotion of the concept of the educator as a researcher.

CDU responds to the needs within CDET and the broader national and international education community through initiating, developing, exchanging, implementing, supporting or managing educational initiatives, projects and support services across a range of educational areas. One area of focus is on social justice issues as well as programmes involving inclusion, access and participation that address the causes and effects of educational disadvantage.

CDU supports the provision of quality educational opportunities and the management of CDET's QA systems. QA support staff can be contacted on fetqa@cdetb.ie. A core component of quality provision is the area of Professional Learning and Development (PLD) for all staff. A calendar of PLD opportunities for CDET and community provider staff is available on <http://cdetbcdu.ie/index.php/cpd-calendar/> PLD staff can be contacted at pld@cdu.cdetb.ie.

CDU provides a national printing service for educational organisations including CDET colleges and centres. Contact staff on info@cdu.cdetb.ie for information on rates and availability.

Additionally, a library and research service for CDET staff is based in the CDU. The librarian can be contacted at eva.hornung@cdu.cdetb.ie.

For more information contact the Director at (01) 4989500 or visit www.cdetbcdu.ie

International Desk

CDET International Desk is an education support and innovation service where the focus is not only on learning from international experiences but also contributing to it. Its vision is to generate and create a culture of innovation and creativity in collaboration with CDET schools, colleges and centres and generate partnerships and networks at local, national and international levels.

Many CDET schools, colleges and centers participate in international project work that is supported by the International Desk. Funding is provided by Leargas, the government body in Ireland with responsibility for the management and distribution of European funding currently known as the Erasmus+ Programme.

Erasmus+ Programmes are mainly in areas of Vocational Education and Training (VET) and the Adult Education sectors and are defined as Key Action One Projects (KA1). As a result of Erasmus+, many CDET students experience an overseas work experience placement as part of their programme/course.

In recent years the International Desk has partnered with several institutions in European countries and has completed Key Action Two Projects (KA2) in the VET area. Models of good practice have been developed and implemented in the areas of: Blended Learning, Technology Enhanced Learning Mentoring, Work Based Learning, and Promoting Accreditation of Learning (PAL). The CDET International Desk has ensured that all of these models have been disseminated and adapted to suit various sectors of education nationally.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD) is key to generating and supporting the innovative process at all levels. The International Desk is active in the design and implementation of CPD opportunities for CDETB staff to experience international best practice. It also accommodates and hosts customised study and research programmes for a growing number of international education bodies coming to Ireland.

The International Desk is also involved in supporting global school projects in which our teaching staff contribute to the educational development of less developed countries such as Zambia and Sierra Leone.

The CDETB International Desk on behalf of CDETB is happy to share and engage with schools, colleges and education bodies at all levels. Our contact email addresses are: erasmus@intl.cdetb.ie or mary.hickie@intl.cdetb.ie

YES for Refugees and Migrants is a youth and education service for young people from refugee and migrant backgrounds - in particular unaccompanied minors. It offers a range of education and youth-work activities that complement formal education provision and non-formal youth work practice. Regional Education and Language Response Team (REALT)

In response to the war in the Ukraine and the subsequent arrival of Ukrainian nationals to the country, the Department of Education established REALTs in each ETB area. City of Dublin ETB has worked closely with all stakeholders, in responding to the issues and supporting Ukrainian nationals with their educational needs.

The primary role of the REALT is to build on existing regional education support structures and the initial focus is on assisting families in securing school places. Our REALT ensure that clear, accessible information flows are in place between schools, local education support services and national support structures in relation to Ukrainian arrivals. This support is available at realt@cdebtb.ie and 086-0108230.

Qualifications

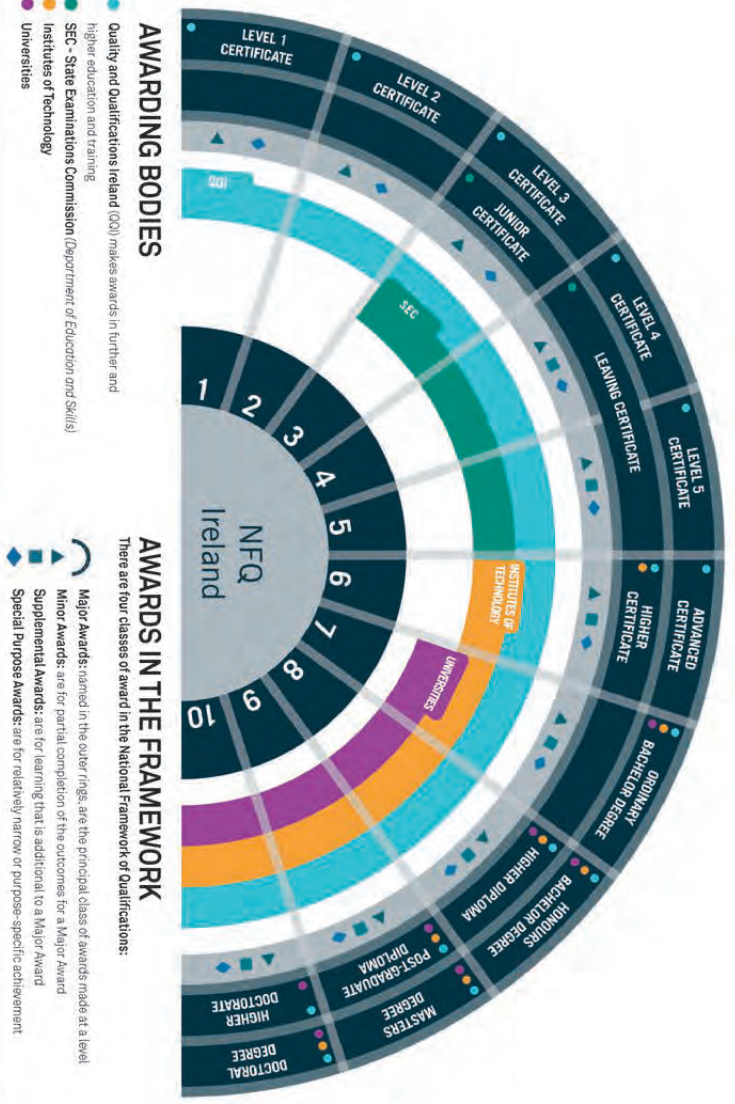

Quality and Qualifications Ireland (QQI) is an independent State agency responsible for promoting quality and accountability in education and training services in Ireland. It was established in 2012.

The QQI Award is the quality-assured qualification awarded for further and higher education and training in Ireland. The QQI award has replaced the certification previously made by FETAC and HETAC.

One of the roles of QQI is to maintain the National Framework of Qualifications (NFQ) as a system of relating different qualification levels to one another. Learners receive a QQI award when they successfully complete a course at any of the 10 levels of the National Framework of Qualification (NFQ).

The Higher Education Links Scheme (HELs) gives learners the opportunity to use their QQI level 5 or 6 major FET award to apply, through the CAO (Central Applications Office), for a place on a higher education course.
